

.....

Timeshare-Scams-Action-Club

September 12, 2010

Mission Statement

Our purpose is to help eliminate resale scams in the timeshare industry by educating people. We hope this educational material will prevent future individuals from becoming victims to a resale scam. Through consultation we hope to help individuals build confidence and to become competent in successful marketing techniques when dealing with the timeshare resale industry. By providing this consultation service and information we hope we can assist them to recognize their highest potential as well as possible alternatives for recouping of losses.

The Purpose: to eliminate resale marketing scams by unethical companies.

The Business: advocacy, conflict resolution and education.

The Values: understanding ethics in business and telemarketing techniques that bring standards of excellence back to individuals dealing with the timeshare resale marketing industry.